Other Reports

President Ric invited our visiting Rotarian Gertrude Ngenda from Zambia to tell us about Rotary in Zambia
Her reason for being in Perth was to visit her new grand daughter
She has taken on many roles in her club from President to Treasurer
Rotary Foundation Chair for her District
Her club was one of the biggest in Zambia with 102 members
Due to some in fighting the club split and now has 60+ members
One of her club's project is the collecting of used eyeglasses
And is on the lookout for any second-hand medical equipment
And has received some assistance from a local hospital
Any medical equipment is welcome in Africa as there is a great need

Jodie Sparks

To be compliant with District Governance and Child protection
Can any member who has a "Working with Children Card" please forward a copy to her

John Stockbridge

Reminder members of the clubs networking Function at Gosnells Golf Club on Wednesday July 24th 5.30 pm -8.00pm
If your planning to attend Numbers are required, no later than this Friday

Past President Simon

Handed out more light-hearted certificate from his year to

Rotarian on the Spot

Nancy Kilkenny

My first Job was in 1984
Was making was making uniforms for McDonalds and others
Then moved into working for a settlement agency where she got her license in 6 months

Gordon Smith

Do you know what your kids are doing?
While awaiting a license to get Financial accreditation he was wondering why it took so long Turns out his siblings had doxed him into the Dept of immigration which caused a delay in getting his long-awaited Police Clearance

And is celebrating the arrival of his third grandchild

And Corporal Dom Manno

Raffle Drawn by Gertrude Ngenda and won by Tony Italiano

Some of the fines

Fines master John has appointed that the last person in should be corporal

Zanetta late again

Chile boys need to toughen up the sauce is sweet

Julie doing repairs to her glasses in the meeting

Murray Walking his dog in the park to frighten other dogs

Ric had to buy more Wine as Julie was knocking his off

Michelle her dog was crook on her

Robert da Prato taking up two parking bays

Tony has had a house for sale so long his sign is being overgrown

Teresa looking "hot" in fleecy jacket

Is there a nicer feeling than being in a room full of people and the dog chooses to come sit next to you?

I think not.
