John selected the

Host Naomi introduced guest speaker Fleur Massey
Fleur has created Blue Guardians

Fleur Massey has served in the Royal Air Force, South Yorkshire Police, and after emigrating to Western Australia in 2006, has also served with WA Police.

Fleurs' husband is a veteran and a serving Police Officer with 33 years' experience of working on the front line.

In the last 23 years with emigrating to Australia,
a regional posting, and becoming a mother, Fleur has gained the unique experience and understanding of the challenges faced by those serving in the military and the emergency services while also experiencing first - hand how their service impacts their family.

Fleur now supports Australian Veterans, First Responders, and their families in their entirety, by giving her time to Warrior Racing Ltd and running her own business,
'Blue Guardians'

Through education, support, and collaboration,

we develop the wellbeing and strength of the FAMILY that stands alongside all those that have ever served

With the help of a police officer psychologists, she has formed Blue Guardian

And will soon set up a website "In times of Trauma"

Fleur's presentation was passionate and bought the attention of many members after the meeting

Host Naomi with Fleur

This week's "toss" was John Stockbridge
And the winner of the chockies was Sandy Cream
Next week's "toss" John Rechichi

Last week's newsletter puzzle winner was Susan Howlett Who correctly identified the flags in order as Netherlands Italy Hungary Ireland

The flag of France for the doubters !!

Thanks to Susan Howlett for this riddle!! send your answers to Phil

This is an unusual sentence. Why?

Though Tom had brought no lunch to school on Thursday, it didn't turn out badly as a boy who had two rolls and a pack of biscuits did a good thing in passing a bit of food on to him?

Blast from the past

FIVE REASONS TO DRINK WINE
THE ARRIVAL OF A FRIEND
ONE'S STATE OF THIRST TO EVOKE CLEVERNESS
EXCELLENCE OF THE WINE OR ANY OTHER REASON

Bet that job is.... Exhausting

Friends are the fruitcake of our lives. Some are nutty, some are soaked in alcohol, some firm, some sweet, but altogether, they are great to have in your life.
